

Bryan Elliot Henson

June 23, 1959 - January 2, 2025

"Bryan Elliott Henson, (affectionately known as B by family and friends) was born on June 23, 1959, in Provo, Utah, and passed away naturally and peacefully at his home in Payson, Utah on January 2, 2025. Bryan touched the lives of many with his infectious wit and humor and unwavering kindness.

A lover of the outdoors, Bryan cherished camping trips with family and friends, and enjoyed deer camp with his lifelong friends and brothers. He had a unique love-hate relationship with golf as anyone who golfs can relate to. Bryan took meticulous pride in his yard work, cultivating beautiful lawns and gardens wherever he called home.

Bryan's professional journey began after attending Utah Tech, where he learned auto body. He started by painting cars where he honed his skills. He then moved to painting high-tech precision military and aerospace parts for Klune Industries. He finished his career painting custom jets for Duncan Aviation. He was immensely proud of all the accomplishments throughout his career.

Music was another of Bryan's great passions. He attended countless concerts with family and friends and loved the Festival of Colors, where he created lasting memories with his children. His quick wit and infectious humor made him the life of any party and there were plenty of parties, whether it was birthday bashes in the mountains, New Year's Eve and Halloween parties at friends' houses or simply getting together for any reason.

Bryan loved his family which he started with his first wife, Chris. Together they welcomed the light of his life, their daughter Cassie Lyn, who always made him beam with pride. After meeting his second wife and lifelong friend and partner, Brenda, they adopted the cutest baby boy Jordon, followed by their youngest son, Taylor, who made a perfect little brother to Jordon and completed Dad. They built a beautiful home in Brenda's hometown of Santaquin where they flourished.

Bryan is preceded in death by his father, Charles (Chuck) Henson; his brother, David Lee

Henson; his sister-in-law, Leslee Henson; and his first wife, Christine Morton Henson. He is survived by his beloved wife, Brenda Wall Henson; daughter, Cassie; sons, Jordon and Taylor; grandson, Connor; mother, Patty Lou Henson; brothers, Steve, Mark (Tina), Scott (Dede); and sister, Lori.

Bryan will be deeply missed by all who had the privilege of knowing him. His legacy of love, humor, and friendship will forever remain in the hearts of those he touched.”

Funeral services will be held at 11:00 a.m., Friday, January 10, 2025 at the Barn at Wall Brothers Orchard, 918 N SR-198, Santaquin, Utah. The family will receive friends at the Berg Mortuary of Provo, 185 East Center Street, Thursday, January 9, from 6-8:00 p.m. Interment will be in the Santaquin City Cemetery.
